In Safe Sleep Space, Helen Stevens offers parents a welcome alternative to the 'cry it out' method of settling. Her gentle, easy-to-follow blend of theory and practice will promote parental fulfilment and foster feelings of safety and security in infants and children. An indispensable book for any parent or parent-to-be!

Helen Stevens is available to talk with groups of professionals and parents about the Safe Sleep Space approach. Bookings and further information are available from Early Parent & Infant Consultants (details at bottom of page).

Copies of Safe Sleep Space have been sold to participants of the 10th World Congress of Infant Mental Health in Paris (2006) and orders from across the world are now being filled.
